

Vanessa Cron

Biography :

Vanessa Cron has specialized in historic provenance research and the history of jewellery design. She worked for four years for one of the most important expert dealers in antique jewellery and exceptional gemstones, and for 15 years at Christie's as Jewellery Archivist and Senior Cataloguer. She is now an independent jewellery historian, lecturer and consultant. She is also in charge of the 'Jewellery Design History' class at the Geneva School of Art and Design (HEAD - Genève) and of the online education program on jewellery at Christie's Education.

Lately, she was one of the contributing authors on the book 'Winged Beauty: The Butterfly Jewellery Art of Wallace Chan'.
