

Dr. Bernard Ivaldi

Biography :

Bernard Ivaldi is a Swiss resident who has spent the last forty-five years living and working in the United States and Europe. Bernard Ivaldi has obtained diplomas from American and French Universities including a Ph.D. (doctorate 1983) from Columbia Pacific University. He was a H.E.W. Doctoral Fellow in Bilingual Education at New-York University N.Y. (1977).

From 1972 to date Bernard Ivaldi has held the following senior administrative posts:

- Chairman, Tatiana Fabergé SA, Switzerland*(current)
- Chairman, Laboratoires Helvetica Pharma SA, Switzerland
- Administrator Lalive & Partners, Attorneys at Law, Geneva
- Director Webster University, Geneva, Switzerland
- Director General the International School of Geneva, Geneva
- Director French American School, San Francisco, USA
- Principal United Nations International School, NY, USA

During the years serving in the above-mentioned senior positions, Bernard Ivaldi has traveled extensively, lecturing, representing, and assisting at international meetings. He has gained invaluable experience in the field of administration, management of finances and of personnel, and in-service training. He has been responsible for the organization of numerous conferences and seminars.

Gemgeneve.com | info@gemgeneve.com